Vocabulary Verb Conversation Activity

Number of Players: one or more

Materials: verb and vocabulary flashcards

Instructions:

- Place a pile of verb flashcards in the "you" form face down. (For more challenge have verbs in the infinitive so players have to form the "you" form.)
- Place a pile of vocabulary flashcards face down.
- Players take turns picking up one verb flashcard and one vocabulary flashcard to form questions.
- Each player asks a question using the verb and vocabulary word he has picked up.
- Other player answers in a complete sentence using the verb and vocabulary word.

Examples:

- Player picks up the verb card - escondes (you hide) and vocabulary card - los juguetes (the toys).
- He forms the question: ¿Escondes los juguetes? (Do you hide the toys?)
- Other player answers: Sí, escondo los juguetes. (Yes, I hide the toys.)

OR in the case when verb and vocabulary do not go together well:

- Player picks up the verb card - vives (you live) and vocabulary card - el despertador (the alarm clock).
- She forms the question: ¿Vives en el despertador? (Do you live in the alarm clock?)
- Other player answers: No, no vivo en el despertador. (No, I don't live in the alarm clock.)
