

The image shows a template for a Mother's Day card. It features a large rectangular area with a dashed border, intended for a photo or drawing. This central area is surrounded by a decorative border of various colorful flowers and green leaves. The flowers include pink, purple, yellow, and blue varieties, some with detailed centers. The leaves are green and have different shapes. The text 'Feliz día de las madres' is written in a large, purple, cursive font across the middle of the card. There are small scissors icons at the corners of the dashed border, indicating where to cut.
